

Lily Terrace Rome – Apartment Guide

Essential operating instructions & building protocols • Vicolo del Giglio, 2a, Roma

Rome, Italy (RM 00186)
Rione Regola • Centro Storico

Address & Entrance

Vicolo del Giglio, 2a • Roma, RM 00186

The closest major landmark is Piazza Farnese, which is the closest point most taxis can reach.

Building entrance at Vicolo del Giglio, 2a (wooden door in center)

Street Numbering: Street numbers count upward on each side of the street independently, and do not use odd and even addresses to distinguish opposite sides of the street. The 2A door is between the doors to Vicolo del Giglio 2 and 3 (Idraulico Valentini).

Key & Building Access

Building Door: Insert the long, round-back "CISA" key into the lower keyhole with teeth up, turn clockwise a quarter turn, and push open. Press any lit button in the stairwell for lighting.

Apartment Door: At the top of the stairs, open the door on the left (unlocked), follow the veranda to the green shutter door (unlocked). The small round-back key opens the apartment door.

All doors lock automatically upon closing.

Departure Checklist

- Turn off all A/C units and all lights.
- Ensure that the oven and stove tops are completely off.
- Ensure that the projector and PS5 are powered off.
- Ensure all windows and doors are firmly closed.
- Take all perishable food with you or dispose of it.
- Take out all trash and recycling.
- Clean and put away all dishes.
- Leave dirty sheets, pillowcases, and towels in the laundry hamper.
- Leave the apartment keys in the key bowl in the living room.

Household Items

Cabinet by the door: Shopping bags, paper towels, shelf-stable foods.

Cabinet above bathtub: Toilet paper, sunscreen, soap, toothbrushes, first aid kit.

Living room cubbies: Plugs, charging cables, fans, speaker, hats, extra towels, sheets, board games, office supplies.

Navigating the Condo

Front kitchen door: Do not put fingers in the door hinge. Don't leave the cabinet to the left of the refrigerator open.

Living room to bathroom door: Turn the handle completely when opening and closing.

Bedroom door & stairs: Turn on the light when going down the stairs (switches at both top and bottom).

Veranda to living room door: This glass door can be hard to see when open if curtains are down. Watch your step.

Climate & A/C

Please turn the A/C off when leaving the apartment.

The upstairs bedroom A/C cools very fast and is only needed when in use.

Please keep windows closed during summer when A/C is running.

Use the floor fan to direct cool air from the living room into the sleeping alcove.

Kitchen & Appliances

Equipped with an induction cooktop, compact dishwasher, and small oven.

Plates, bowls, and glasses are in the cabinet above the sink. Silverware is in the cabinet to the left of the refrigerator.

Perishable food: Please throw out all perishable food when departing. Do not bring perishable food into international transit.

Laundry & In-Unit Washer

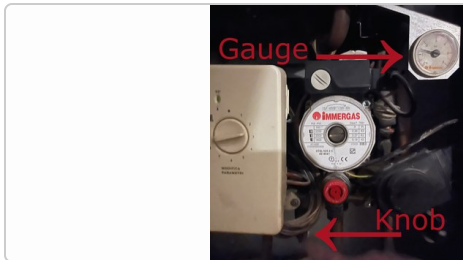

1. Add clothes to the washer (do not overstuff).
2. Push down the lower metal flap (with the plastic latch).
3. Push down upper metal flap and lock it into the lower flap.
4. Pour detergent (half cap full) into opening on right.
5. Turn dial left past zero, then right to desired setting (1st number is °C, 2nd number is cycle minutes).
6. Hold blinking "Avvio" button for 2s to start.
7. Once running, do not pause or turn the dial. Let the cycle complete before opening.
8. If the lid won't open, press the square Reset button above Avvio and wait for completion.
9. Lift lid and open cylinder via the plastic latch.
10. Hang laundry in veranda/terrace, or use the laundromat across the street (20–30 min dry).

Note: The 60°C cotton setting is only for towels/sheets.

Hot Water

If hot water isn't running, check the gas boiler in the veranda against the kitchen wall.

If the pressure gauge is below 1, gently unscrew the knob below and to the left of it until pressure rises between 1 and 2, then screw the knob back tight. Test hot water again.

Boiler pressure gauge (keep between 1–2 bar) and fill knob

Waste & Recycling

Separated collection per Rome municipal regulations:

- Organic (Umido): Brown bin
- Paper & Cardboard: Blue bag
- Plastic: Yellow bin • Glass & Metal: Green bin

Nearest sorted bins: Located at Via della Pietà, 15 (just a short walk toward the Ghetto).

Sorted bins are also placed in Campo de' Fiori in late afternoon in front of Drunken Ship.

Bagged collection: Leave bagged trash around the corner on Vicolo delle Grotte next to the flamingo graffiti. Schedule: Mon–Paper, Tue–Plastic, Wed–Mixed, Thu–Paper, Fri–Plastic.

Post Office

Do not trust online hours for post offices. The main branch at Piazza San Silvestro is guaranteed open 8:00 AM – 12:30 PM, Monday through Saturday. Arrive early to avoid queues.

Sending mail from building slots or receiving deliveries at Vicolo del Giglio is unreliable.

Coffee & Breakfast

Barnum: Closest spot for specialty espresso, filter coffee, and French pastries (skip the line by ordering at the bar to-go).

Sant'Eustachio Il Caffè: Renowned historic Roman espresso. Order a caffè freddo con latte for an American-style iced espresso drink.

Cellular & Entertainment

For cellular data, Vodafone, TIM, or Wind Tre SIMs/eSIMs work best in the historic center.

PS5 console with pre-installed games is connected to the entertainment center.

Projector Operation

Alignment: The projector is centered to fit the projection wall with a slight top bow and slim border.

Powering Off: Hold the power button down for 2 seconds and select Shutdown. Do not just quick-press into sleep mode.

House Rules & Respect

- Do not climb onto the roof from the terrace or window.
- Do not slam the front building door or apartment doors.
- Maximum occupancy on the terrace is 4 people.
- Please keep terrace noise to a minimum at all times.
- Keep projector audio volume below 25.
- Please always use sheets when sleeping on the sofa bed.

Terrace Protocol

Terrace lighting and the retractable awning share a master switch. Toggling off/on adjusts light brightness.

Operate the awning strictly using the remote control (light must be on). Do not push manually.

Watch out for the terrace outdoor faucet to avoid accidental injury when seating.

Useful Italian Expressions

- How is it going? – Come stai? / Come sta?
- Thanks a million: – Grazie infinite
- With pleasure: – Con piacere
- And to you: – A te / A lei
- Excuse me: – Scusi / Scusa
- Pleasure to meet you: – Piacere
- Hello / Good day: – Ciao / Salve / Buongiorno
- I'm sorry / Forgive me: – Mi dispiace / Perdonami
- My mistake / You're right: – Errore mio / Hai ragione

Roman Culinary Etiquette

• Don't cut your pasta • Don't talk loudly in trattorias • Don't mix pasta sauces • No cappuccino past 12:00 noon • Dress smartly for evening dining • Stay hydrated from the historic nasoni street fountains.

Recommended Cultural Visits

Caravaggio Walking Tour: Free walking tour via GuruWalk is excellent.

Palazzo Farnese: French Embassy guided tours (book well in advance).

Doria Pamphilj & Palazzo Barberini: Extraordinary art collections with zero crowds—superb alternative to Galleria Borghese.

Church Dress Code: Shoulders and knees must be covered to enter any church in Rome.

Salumi & Cheese Guidance

Crudo di Bassiano Gran Riserva: Outstanding local Lazio cured ham.

An etto is 100 grams (serves ~4 for tasting). Request a piatto degustazione for mixed cuts.

Shops: Antica Ruggeri (closest, huge range), DA ROMA azienda agricola (Piazza Navona), Roscioli Salumeria (high-end charcuterie).

Vicolo del Giglio, 2a is situated in the historic heart of Rome between Campo de' Fiori and Piazza Farnese.